You are protected from when you were given this certificate until you return to the UK.

If Ocean Holidays Ltd stops trading, the passengers named above will either:

1 be returned to the UK; or

2 depending on the warning below, receive a refund for the amount above (or your deposit if that is all you have paid so far).

Your protection depends on the terms of the ATOL scheme (available at www.atol.org.uk).

By issuing this ATOL certificate, under Regulation 17 of the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012, Ocean Florida confirms that the flight to which it applies is sold in line with the ATOL held by Ocean Holidays Ltd. To see what that is and what you can expect, together with full information on its terms and conditions, go to www.atol.org.uk.

If Ocean Holidays Ltd stops trading, you must follow the instructions at www.atol.org.uk (where there will be details of arrangements to bring people back to the UK, and information on how people can claim their money back) or you can call (+44) 20 7453 6350.

Warning

This certificate only protects the flight you have booked, so you will not be able to claim a refund from ATOL if you asked to book accommodation or car hire at the same time as your flight and were given this certificate. However, you will be returned to the UK if the firm protecting your flight stops trading. Because of this, you may want to take advice on how you can protect your money. If you want to protect your trip with ATOL, you could ask for an ATOL-protected package or flight-plus instead.
